

POWER TO THE PEOPLE

A Community Art Exhibition fueled by our passion for Liberty

We the People...

ARE CALLING ALL ARTISTS & ACTIVISTS!

Damascus Citizens for Sustainability and The Narrowsburg Union invite you to be part of a bold, community-driven art installation in Delaware Hall at The Union, amplifying voices through activism, protest, and creative expression.

We are seeking:

High-resolution JPEG images of protests (to be included in a large-scale slideshow)

Protest signage and other creative forms of peaceful resistance

Activism-inspired artwork

All submitted pieces should reflect or respond to the pressing issues of our time, including: Women's rights, racial equality, voting rights, immigration, LGBTQ+ rights, environmental justice, climate change, public education, constitutional freedoms, freedom of speech and the press, veterans' rights, humanitarianism, health and science, artistic expression, Medicaid, Medicare, Social Security, the sovereignty of our allies, and more.

Our goal: to fill Delaware Hall with a multimedia tribute to unity over division through powerful visuals and sound.

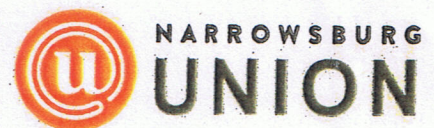

All ages are welcome and encouraged to participate.

Let your visual voice be seen and heard!

Confirm participation and submit digital files to: Curator@NarrowsburgUnion.com

Free to participate. Free to attend.
